Slow Response To Red Cross

Few Contributors Have Made Donations to War-Civilian Needs Red Cross

Contributions to the Red Cross Drive are coming in very slowly, according to T. V. Reeves, county chairman of the Red Cross campaign.

The quota for Randall county is $3,610.

In past drives for Red Cross funds practically one-half of the quota was reached in the first week. The case is entirely different this year. Contributions are not being received as rapidly as they should be.

Citizens are urged not to wait until solicitors call upon them for contributions. The quota is the same as in the past, and therefore it will take the same amount of contributions in order to put over the drive.

Mr. Reeves is at the City Hall during the campaign to receive contributions. Donations may be made there, or they may be left at the First National Bank.

The war work of the Red Cross will continue until every GI is brought home, and every hospitalized man is restored to civilian life. The Red Cross needs much money for its regular civilian relief work.

R. F. McConnell Found Dead From Heart Attack

Robert F. McConnell, 48, was found dead Sunday evening at his farm southwest of Canyon. He had been dead for several hours. He has had heart attacks in the past, and examination of the body by physicians led to the verdict of such a disease.

Neighbors had seen a light in his house about 11 o'clock Saturday night. He had returned home from Canyon during the evening. Visitors at the home during Sunday failed to arouse any one. A neighbor, Mrs. C. P. Robinson, went to the home at 6 o'clock, and on entering the house found the body of the dead man.

Mr. McConnell has been a prosperous farmer in that community for 15 years. He lived alone, excepting at such time as he had hired help.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Church of Christ, conducted by the minister, Lyle Bonner. The body was taken to Hereford for interment.

Pall bearers were: Paul Fry, S. S. Howell, J. H. Barnett, Edgar Robinson, Billy Scott, Wilber Leavitt. Honorary pall bearers were: Floyd Bond, Roy Byrd, J. W. Spencer, Ben Buecher, O. M. Scott, F. A. Moore. Survivors are two brothers, H. R. McConnell of Waco and George S. McConnell of Washington, D. C., both of whom are here.

Cemetery Association Plans Improvement Program

Work in Dreamland Cemetery is progressing with satisfaction to the directors of the Association. These directors are high in their praise for the cooperation given them by the people of the community.

The well is complete with casing installed. That much is paid for in full. Yet to be bought and installed is the pump, tank and pipe.

There is some money on hand and contributions are continuing to come in. It is hoped that by the time the material arrives there will be enough money to pay for the material and the labor for installation.

If you have not contributed and wish to do so, do not wait to be contacted but call some member of the association or send your check to the secretary of the association.

Mrs. P. L. Walters, Richard Walters and Mrs. Fern Shepherd spent Sunday in Pampa visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walters.

City Slate Made April Election

Warren and Condon Joined By G. A. Farlow to Make Race for City Commission

Mayor W. A. Warren and Commissioner S. H. Condon have agreed to be candidates for re-election as members of the City Commission in the election which comes Tuesday, April 2. G. A. Farlow will be a candidate for the place made vacant by the death of B. F. Oatis. Citizens of Canyon insisted that Mr. Warren and Dr. Condon continue on the commission in view of the vital improvement program which must be undertaken during the coming two years. Both of these men understand the necessity of the work, and the best way to handle the program. They finally agreed to accept another term.

Mr. Farlow stated that he was willing to undertake the job, and his candidacy meets the approval of the other two members. He is engaged in the electrical business, and with the scarcity of materials which confronts all dealers, Mr. Farlow expressed the opinion that he would have ample time to assist with the improvement program which will be before the people during the coming administration.

The staff is very grateful to the people of Randall county for the splendid support which they have given this newspaper as it has striven to serve the best interests of Randall county for 50 years. The present management has been in charge of The News for almost 38 years, which is a pretty good record in itself.

We are most grateful for the splendid co-operation which has been given us during the trying war days, when the labor situation has been most critical. Advertisers, reporters and correspondents have been most cooperative in getting their copy in early so that we could publish on time.

The News has tried to give you the best newspaper possible. Since October 1st we have printed 12 pages each week, with only one single exception. In view of the labor shortage this is a very fine record.

The circulation of The News has never been so large as it is today. People subscribe for The News because they like this newspaper. We are grateful for this fine support.

The News strives to improve its service to the people of Randall county week by week. With your continued co-operation this goal may be achieved.

Contracts To Be Let on Buildings

Terrill Annex and Cafeteria Are Next on the Schedule for the Campus

Plans and specifications for a new dormitory for men to be located east of the Terrill Hall dining room, are to be completed this week by M. O. Carder of Amarillo, architect. A contract for the one-story brick structure will be let as soon as possible. No name for the unit has been assigned.

This new dormitory, designated as a veterans housing project, will have accommodations for one hundred men. It will be built in the form of an "H," with two north-south wings connected by a central wing. Priorities for the dormitory have not been obtained, according to Virgil Henson, business manager of the College.

A contract for an all-college cafeteria probably will be awarded in April, said Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State. This brick structure will face the Education Building from a location north of the Student Union. The sidewalk along the front of the Education Building will lead to the main entrance of the cafeteria. The size of the unit has not been decided. However, the architect has been instructed to provide a main floor with tables enough to seat 400 persons at one time.

Although construction is going forward on the annex to Randall Hall, it appears unlikely that this structure can be completed and furnished before fall. Although Contractor C. S. Lambie of Amarillo may complete his contract on schedule, the necessary furniture may not be available.

Miss Nan Johnson Discharged Wacs

Miss Nan Johnston, whose discharge became effective Saturday, was visiting in Canyon Saturday en route to California to visit with her sisters.

Miss Johnston was discharged with the rank of 1st lieutenant. She had been in the WACs for 3 years. She spent 1 year in England and 6 months in Germany with the Air Corps.

Living in England was a pleasant experience; but the disrespect for Americans openly expressed in Germany made living there a different experience.

Miss Johnston flew to England in 18½ hours when being sent over on her assignment. Coming home she was on the Athos II when that ship was struck by a hurricane and had to put into the Azores for repair. The Enterprise then went out after the passengers. She was on a ship 32 days. "Land looked good and felt good under foot after that experience," stated Miss Johnston.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Editorials

FIFTY YEARS OLD

The News staff is very unhappy today.

The Canyon News is 50 years old, and there is nothing we can do about it. Old age simply crept up on us, without plans or hopes for an adequate celebration.

The facts are that since we observed the 40th birthday of The News, plans have been considered for an adequate birthday celebration when the newspaper reached its 50th birthday.

And then came the war.

For four years there was nothing incentive about birthdays, or the anticipation of a birthday celebration.

When the war ended we thought surely that now we can start to work on a historical edition which would give a proper setting for our 50th birthday. But alas, we had misfired. We had not figured on all of the headaches of reconversion.

We ordered a new linotype in 1945; we were notified this week that it will not be here before November 1, 1946. Strikes!

The labor situation is not much better than it was during the war. We had planned for a special writer to come and assist on the edition, but no housing was available. So no editorial help.

We thought that when the war ended there would be plenty of printers available. Again, only slight relief.

Furthermore, the paper situation is in a much more critical condition than during the war.

Engravings are hard to secure because of the labor shortage.

Faced with all these difficulties, over which we had no control, we are going to sing ourselves birthday greetings, and pat ourselves meekly on the back for having attained the ripe old age of 50 years, and postpone any hope of celebration or special edition until later in the year.

We are hoping—hoping, we say, and this is not a joke, son—that sometime during the year that conditions will ease so that we can get out a historical edition that will be a credit to this good town and county. If we do, it will be a belated birthday celebration.

So hold your birthday greetings for a little while, and see if we cannot figure out a method to publish a birthday edition later in the year.

"You are a little hard on the Democratic State Executive Committee in view of the fact that the Southern Democrats promise to question all candidates," remarked a reader after the last issue of The News. This is far from the facts. The State Committee is attempting to do legally the thing which is denied by law. Its sole function, as a legally constituted body, is to follow the laws of the state. It does not have the power of another Huey Long to make the laws to suit itself as it proceeds. So far as the Southern Democrats, or Texas Regulars, or CIO, or any other group in the state, all of these have the right to question candidates, and do question candidates. Farm organizations, labor unions, women's clubs, and other organizations of the state question candidates hoping to elect public officials who will carry out their wishes. What they say or do is not legal in any sense of the word. The candidate may tell them to go and jump in the lake. But the State Committee has agreed to back all candidates who do not fall under their spell. The State Committee proposes to ask the candidates questions and proposes to publish the answers of the candidates. It has agreed to support no candidate which does not agree with its edicts. All of this is illegal. The law tells the Committee how far it may go, and it has no further legal right.

A visiting newspaper man remarked Sunday as to how clean Canyon was. His remarks are duly appreciated. But the spring winds will uncover a lot of trash and debris which will make our faces red unless something is done. It is the duty of each and every property owner to get busy, raking up the ravages of winter and burning the trash. Letting it blow over on your neighbor's property certainly violates the principle of the "Good Neighbor" policy.

If you have tried to buy a pillow recently you know that down is up.

MUST VOTE BONDS

When you mention a bond issue some citizens blow off the lid and swear that they will never support another such issue. Said citizens do not pile up more debts when we are already saddled with a federal debt which amounts to $2,000 for each and every citizen.

The case in Canyon is very different. We are going to pay for a bond issue whether we vote it or not; and we may pay a much greater sum than the bond issue, should we not get busy and do something.

The water problem confronts Canyon. We must have more water, and must have it now. We cannot wait for 10 years or so, until times become normal. The present water plant has reached its maximum capacity. Houses are being built all over Canyon, regardless of the storage in materials. When materials become plentiful you will see a great building wave sweep over Canyon. It will then be too late to think about adding to the water supply of the city. The demand for water will exceed the supply.

In the meantime, what may happen? Should Canyon suffer a bad fire, we shall lose our good insurance rating because of the present lack of water mains. Furthermore we could be further penalized, by an actual increase of fire insurance rates. If we should be penalized, or should even lose our present credit of 25¢ for our fire record, the people of Canyon would pay for the needed water expansion, but would still be without this improvement. If we should put off this improvement for many years, the chances are that we shall pay double the amount of the cost of the insurance rates.

This is simply a matter of arithmetic. Are we going to spend a little money for improvements, or shall we be penalized a like amount and not have the improvements? We believe that the people of Canyon will see the urgency of the present situation and vote unanimously for the bond issue.

The bond election should be called as quickly as possible. Bonds were never selling at such low rate of interest. The issue could be voted, and the money held until needed.

This is one bond issue that cannot be avoided.

We are going to get tough with Russia, according to Secretary of State Jimmy Byrnes. World War II was started because we were afraid to get tough when the Japs invaded China; when Mussolini invaded Ethiopia; and when Hitler violated the World War I treaty. Maybe we have learned that the time to stop a war is before it gets started. We are warned that we must fight Russia. We are told that World War II is already in the making. Getting tough with Russia—if she is war minded—could put a stop to her ambitions. Getting tough without provocation might start another war.

Back of every great enterprise is a great man. The Dallas News lost its guiding genius when George B. Dealey died. Fortunately Mr. Dealey has trained a great staff that will carry on the traditions of this wonderful newspaper. The Dallas News has done more for country newspapers than any other daily. It has sought to improve the quality of the country press through encouragement and friendliness. All of which was a part of the George Dealey program. Peace to his ashes.

The Russians have twice fired on American planes. In each instance they missed. Either they were not using the good guns and ammunition which we furnished them to fight the Axis, or their aim is poor. The least we can do is to get an explanation before loaning them the billion dollars which Stalin has requested.

KEEP GOVERNMENT IN ITS PLACE

Competition is as foreign to a government bureau as the bureaucrat is to private industry. The only competition in government is in the interminable struggle for patronage and privilege.

A public official has announced that the government is planning on installing stamp vending machines in post offices "for the convenience of customers." Undoubtedly the "customers" would appreciate the machines, but they should not be disappointed if they do not appear overnight. The post office department is a government monopoly rendering a vital service. It is efficient, but unprogressive. It has no competitor across the street—or stamp vending machines would have been installed twenty years ago.

To further sharpen the contrast, observe private industry, particularly the natural resource group such as metal and coal mining, oil and power. These industries produce the sinews of America. Hardly a day passes that a technical development of some kind is not put to work. In recent years, coal mining has been largely mechanized. As Coal Age points out, "Higher productivity and lower cost always have been major concerns of coal men because of their close relationship to meeting and beating competition. Since the machine is the outstanding means of attaining that end, developments in machine design and especially in capacity, are matters of prime concern to production men."

Government has its place and for the sake of a solvent nation and the freedom of the people it should be kept in its place.

We are asked what we know about the Southern Democrats, who held a banquet in Dallas last week. We know nothing about the organization. It was revealed at the banquet that many of those attending had been affiliated with the Texas Regulars in the 1944 election. So far as other beliefs of the group are concerned, we know absolutely nothing. In fact, we never heard of the organization before the banquet was held. But we judge that the Southern Democrats organization is the conservative members of the party who are fearful of the CIO leadership which is shown by the radical group. It is evident that this group is not willing to permanently surrender the leadership of the party to the rabid radicals. It is evident that the leadership of President Truman, Governor Coke Stephenson and men of such calibre is not satisfactory to the radicals. They are seeking to oust such conservative leaders in favor of the lopsided group. This fight—conservative vs. radicals—has gone on in both of the major parties for 75 years. Right now the battle goes on within the Republican party, just the same as it is being waged in the Democratic party.

HANDLE WITH CARE

The transit workers of the city of New York have shown that representative government can be a fragile thing. In January, New York's mayor proposed that the deficit-ridden municipal power plants which furnish power to the transit lines of the city, be sold to private power companies. Under the law the move was perfectly legal, as well as logical. As the New York Times stated, it was a dollars and cents proposition and nothing more. The city was losing money on the plants; therefore, get rid of them.

But when the mayor, acting in the interest of all the people attempted to open negotiations for the sale, a minority group, a labor union of transit workers, served notice that they would strike if private ownership took the place of public ownership in the supply of power to New York's trains. In order to avoid a chaotic tie-up of transportation, the mayor withdrew his proposal. The city continues to be saddled with a liability for which the taxpayers must foot the bill.

Legal, representative government has retreated before the threat of force, and a political issue, public versus private ownership, has been decided by the head of a local union.

It is a short step from New York to Washington. And while it seems almost unpatriotic to foresee the possibility that representative government on national scale may be threatened in a similar manner, the facts remain that it may. The precedent has been set. New York is not the only instance of labor unions combining force and politics.

Representative government is a fragile thing—when the will of a people is weak.

COURAGE AND INTELLIGENCE

If the farmer sat down on his broken plow and refused to till his fields, or if he sat down on his harvesting equipment and refused to gather his crop, the result would be no different from when men in industry stop production. Food production drops because the efficiency of the farm's operation depends on equipment more than it does on the farmer's back—no matter how strong he may be—because modern farming requires highly specialized equipment. Let it be said that striking does not show intelligence—any machine can be stopped by stripping one of its gears; intelligence is shown when a machine is kept from breaking down. The same holds true of our national economy.

The farmer has shown great strength against great obstacles. Let the men in industry realize that it takes courage to show intelligence and uninterrupted production, as contrasted with lack of intelligence which calls a strike and paralyzes production.

Drive around Canyon and see all of the construction which is underway. The same is the case in every town. Someone figures that there has been very little building in the nation for at least a dozen years. The nation's population has greatly increased, and the need of more homes is very urgent. What would be the building situation in Canyon if there was an abundance of materials? No one knows.

There will be an urgent need for Victory Gardens in America this year. We have made commitments of foods to European nations, which are not being met. After all, no one starved in America during the war when food was really scarce. We will not starve, although we may have less to eat in 1946.

After a round on the golf links, the judge and his cronies stopped in for a drink. When the judge ordered coffee, one of the men asked: "Why don't you try something cooling, like gin and ginger ale?" "I've never tried that, Bill," replied the judge, "but I've tried several fellows who did."

A prominent Mexico City attorney praised the increasing study of Spanish, in Texas schools.

"I hear there was some pretty bad shooting at your ranch last night. What happened—some outlaws show up?"

"No—in-laws."

"I take my hat off to no man." "I only take mine off to one." And who is this august person?" "He's not August—he's Ben the barber."

Every town has its share of remarkable people and unusual personalities.

Ranger had a dieter. (There may not have been such a word, but there is now). He was a hearty eater and, every six months, he would decide he was overweight, so he would go two weeks without anything except orange juice. At the end of his fast, he hastened to the family style hotel (meals 50 cents) and the landlady groaned as she saw him approaching. He would eat enough for six men at that first meal and in three weeks he was back to his original weight.

The Tickville Band added to Ranger's renown. This aggregation of music-maulers consisted of some of the leading citizens—a physician; the cashier of the bank; the assistant superintendent of a gasoline plant and a dentist. The doctor was featured in a ukelele number and the cashier shone in what was announced as being "The Double Eagle March" and the gasoline plant official went to town with thimbles on a washboard, but the climax always came when the dentist became entangled in the strings of the bull fiddle and had to be extricated.

The town was the home of an oil well shooter (he made the nitroglycerin that he set off in charges of 100 or even 500 quarts), and of oil operators, for the field witnessed moderate activities for years after the big boom, and of old-time drillers who told tall tales in front of the Gholson Hotel, as they perched on an iron railing.

The proprietor of the most popular confectionery was an old-time minstrel man who had toured the United States and the Orient. The president of the bank was a busy man for the hotel he owned was the telegraph office and bus station and his cafe was the meal stop for all the busses running through Ranger—and still is. The picture show proprietor had a cat that ate hot cakes and was a confirmed picture show fan—but always walked out if Mickey Mouse was shown. And the fire chief had a pet duck that followed him when he came up town, the creature waddling along half a dozen paces behind and stopping when the chief stopped.

Yes, Ranger had a lot of colorful individuals living there.

And now suppose you tell us about your home town!

"I think Egbert's a fine fellow, but I don't like the way he gives me dirty looks."

"In that case I'd try giving him some soft soap."

Rotary Ends Series With Talk Monday

Chester Tobin of Chicago Will Discuss World Trade, Standards

Chester M. Tobin of Chicago will be presented as the last speaker in the Rotary Institute of International Understanding. He will speak in the main auditorium on March 11 at 8 p. m. and in the afternoon will address pupils of the two local high schools.

Mr. Tobin's subject will be "Maintaining World Trade and a High Standard of Living."

He is a private investment counselor and a student of world economic problems. For 12 years Mr. Tobin worked with the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. in Europe and Asia. He has traveled extensively in China, Manchuria, Korea, Japan, The Philippines, Malaya, India, Europe and North Africa. While stationed in Shanghai, China, for eight years, he initiated and directed a number of international organizations whose membership included Chinese, Japanese, Europeans and Americans. In China, he observed at first hand the launching of Japan's conquest of Asia. In Europe, he saw the Nazis extend their totalitarian program to the Balkan countries.

Wrote About Turkey

Upon his return to the United States, Mr. Tobin engaged in educational and financial activities, and recently served as director of the Breck Educational Foundation of Minneapolis. He is the author of the book, "Turkey, Key to the East."

Monday the Institute speaker was W. Leon Godshall of Lehigh University, whose subject was international security in the Pacific.

Russia Has Ambitions

A militant Russia is intent upon intrenching itself as a great power in the Orient, through expansion in Central Asia and a sphere of influence in Manchuria, Mr. Godshall said. It, with the United States, is one of the two most powerful forces in post-war Asia. Britain and France having declined in influence and Japan having been eliminated.

Japan, defeated but not yet willing to admit any moral transgression, must be weaned away from an adulterated Shinto philosophy, which emphasizes ancestor worship and extreme nationalism, before lasting peace can be realized in the Pacific. Notions of racial and national superiority must be supplanted by a willingness to collaborate with others. The educational system requires revision, particularly in the teaching of bona fide history instead of mythology labeled history. These things must be done by Japanese; they cannot be imposed from outside.

Sluggish, strife-ridden China has been victimized since 1842 by western powers posing as her friends and, since 1914, by Japan also. Special foreign privileges and holdings are being liquidated and should be completely cancelled. Inflation must be controlled; agrarian reforms are imperative to restrict avaricious landlords and conserve China's agricultural potential. The Communists' primary objective is to obtain control of the Central Government, despite their minority status, to which end they for years have sabotaged Chungking's war effort while pretending to fight Japan. A working agreement is now in prospect as Stalin (at least temporarily) has "influenced" them to come to terms with Chiang Kai-shek after he concluded a Manchurian-Mongolian bargain with the Nationalist Government, and President Truman has instructed General Marshall to urge an early national conference to achieve unification. China alone would be unable to cope with even a defeated Japan.

Mr. Godshall said, Industrialization of China is both desirable and practical, and should be aided by the World Stabilization Fund, the Bank for Reconstruction and Development, and, if necessary, by the United States. Repayment of loans must be in goods which the U. S. does not produce or want to bother making or in services, trade barriers, therefore, should not be erected to impede repayment. Huge capital will be needed for highways, railways, harbors, factories, public utilities, sanitation systems, schools and hospitals, and technicians will be required (as employees of China) to direct or operate industrial devices until the Chinese can be trained to use them. Japanese investments in Manchuria, Formosa and China might well be given to China in partial reparation, and Japanese prisoners of war could be used in labor battalions (under the Hague Conventions) to rebuild what they have destroyed. The natural economic magnetism between China and Japan should be preserved and products of Japanese heavy industry might be channeled into Far Eastern replacement and construction projects.

Islands taken by U. S. forces should be retained by U. S. as naval and air bases; those belonging to our allies should be restored to them on condition that we retain rights of use and access (without charges customarily imposed by the British, for example, for U. S. naval vessels entering British harbors). Russia will recover southern Sakhalin and Kurile Islands; Korea will become independent under United Nations supervision; the Ryuku and Pescadores Islands and Formosa should revert to China; as will Manchuria.

Randall Annex Well Started

Contractor C. S. Lambie Using Large Crew—
Echols Is Superintendent

Construction of Randall Hall is well under way on the unit now referred to as Randall Annex. Actually it is a complete and separate building, connected by a corridor-lounge on the first floor level.

The plans were drawn in 1941, and N. Y. A. started construction. Work was continued through the summer of 1942, when materials were exhausted. Recently approved by the Board of Regents, a contract to complete the structure was let to C. S. Lambie of Amarillo. As fast as they could be procured, materials were moved to the project site. Before construction could begin, several sections of rock wall were removed. The entire sub-floor on the second level was replaced.

Twenty-Eight Men at Work
L. L. Echols is superintendent of the job, assisted by carpenter and brick-layer foremen. At present there are twenty-eight men, with others to be added soon.

The front of the hall is facing north and plans show its appearance to resemble Stafford Hall. The front wing will be two stories high, with three sets of double windows on each side of the main entrance, which will have a set of triple windows on the second floor. The front will be of yellow cream brick.

On the first floor, most of the east wing will have brick construction. The only other visible rock construction is the back and side walls of the dining hall and kitchen, first floor only. The second story will be of brick except that the west wing over the dining hall will be of stucco. With this plan of construction, the stone and stucco are nicely hidden, and only brick will be visible from the front and side views.

The first floor, east wing, will contain fourteen bedrooms, average 12 feet 9 inches by 12 feet 5 inches and two-room-and-bath apartment for the matron and bath facilities for the girls.

The east wing is connected to the west wing by a large or main lobby in the center of the new building. The west wing contains the large dining room and kitchen, size 50 feet by 88 feet, which according to Virgil Henson, will be used as another lounge, inasmuch as the new cafeteria will serve all students. There is a corridor running between the dining hall and the 20 by 14 foot library and book nook, and the 28 by 40 foot social room connecting the main lobby of the new building with the lobby, or another lounge size 32 by 26 feet. This lounge connects the new building with the old and contains two offices. There is a large concrete porch in front of this lounge.

Lobby on Second Floor

The second floor, east wing, has 16 bed rooms, 2 bath rooms and a stairway connecting first and second floors of the east wing. The front wing has bedrooms, a lobby in the center, and stairway. The west wing has fifteen bedrooms and two bath rooms.

Mr. Lambie is the builder of such structures as the Potter County court house, White and Kirk store, Paramount Building, Blackburn's, and many others.

Heard in a hotel lobby: "Call for Mr. Spanioloppa! Call for Mr. Spanioloppa!"

"The initials, please?" asked Mr. Spanioloppa.

Con. Gene Worley Writes About G. I. Bill of Rights

Almost daily I receive many inquiries from veterans who are being released from the services and returning home to Texas. Most of these questions concern their benefits under the G. I. Bill of Rights pertaining to educational privileges, procedure in securing loans for the purchase of houses, farms, or to enter private business. In addition, there are questions and problems concerning family allowances, government insurance, and a large number of other matters with which the average ex-serviceman is not familiar.

In an effort to be of help in answering these inquiries, Congress has authorized the publication of House Document No. 134 which is designed to give a complete picture of veterans' rights, benefits, privileges, etc.

For example, I quote several questions and answers from this pamphlet.

QUESTION: After a veteran has been discharged from the service, how may he secure information about his insurance?

ANSWER: By writing to the Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C. He should give his first name, middle name, and last name in full and should also state his insurance certificate or policy number and his service serial number or numbers. If his certificate or policy number is not known, to insure proper identification there should also be furnished the insured's rank, rating, or grade, and organization at the time of original application for insurance, his date of separation from service and his date of birth.

QUESTION: How does a veteran make application for a course of education or training under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944?

ANSWER: By filing an application using Veterans Administration Rehabilitation Form 1950, with the Regional Office nearest his location or through the approved education or training institution which he has selected.

Question: Who may borrow money under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944?

ANSWER: Any veteran who was in the active service, after September 16, 1940, and before the end of the war as established by Act of Congress, who served at least 90 days or was discharged for disability incurred in line of duty and who was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Most of the information contained in this pamphlet is in question and answer form and non-technical in nature. I have already sent out several thousand of these booklets and have bought a fresh supply. If you would like to have one, just drop me a note—Congressman Gene Worley, Washington, D. C., which address is sufficient, giving your name and address, and I'll send one to you by the following mail.

"Grandma, I'm afraid your eyesight isn't as good as it used to be," said little Sissy.

"Oh, I guess it's not as bad as you think."

"Then, Grandma, why're you trying to thread a pin head?"

"Was I going west or north when I met you?" asked the absent-minded professor.

"North," answered his friend.

"Good! Then I've already been to lunch!"

Memphis Pastor To Be In Canyon

Rev. Jeff M. Moore, pastor of First Baptist Church in Memphis, Texas, will preach at the Baptist church in Canyon on Sunday night, March 10th, at 8:00 o'clock and will be the visiting teacher for a course in "Soul-Winning Doctrines" which begins Monday, March 11, at 7 p. m.

This is a part of an annual training school for Sunday School workers and prospective workers, and standard credit will be given all who meet attendance and study requirements. The school will run two hours nightly for four nights.

Three other courses will be taught, including one in "Outlines of Bible History" by J. W. Harden; one in "Building a Standard Sunday School" by Virgil Henson; and a course for teachers, entitled "When Do Teachers Teach?" to be taught by Miss Elva Fronabarger.

Pastor Roy L. Johnson will preach at the morning hour on the subject "Seven Roads to Hell." Preaching will be at 11:00 a. m. and Sunday School begins at 9:45. The Training Union for all age groups begins at 7:00 p. m. Sunday School superintendent, Virgil Henson, reports a continued increase in attendance which is setting a new "high" for the year.

Must Watch Diet To Prevent Attack of Pellagra

That the inclusion of proper foods in the daily diet plays a very important part in the maintenance of good health was stressed in a statement issued this week by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"One of the most dreaded of all diseases, pellagra, is caused entirely by not eating the kinds of food which would insure a properly balanced diet," Dr. Cox said. "The public is prone to overlook the serious nature of pellagra. At best it is an uncomfortable and unpleasant disease, but aside from this, there is one possible result that can be very tragic. All too frequently pellagra leads to serious mental disturbances," Dr. Cox warned, "and in some cases, actual insanity."

According to the State Health Officer, pellagra is known as a disease which is no respecter of persons. There is danger of pellagra striking at any age and either sex when the diet is consistently faulty.

To make sure that the diet contains the proper pellagra preventive elements, it should include daily plenty of pure milk, some fresh, lean meat, and as many fresh vegetables as possible. Tomatoes and whole wheat bread are also very valuable and eggs contribute their share to pellagra prevention, as do all varieties of fresh fruits.

MORE THAN 2 MILLION JUST LIKE ME!

Every year from the ranches of the Panhandle-Plains and Pecos Valley, come more than two million head of the finest beef in the world. There's plenty of good feed, an abundance of crystal clear water, healthful climate, and men who know how to take care of cattle.

This entire area is ace-high for beef production. Everything is in its favor for raising the finest beef in the U.S.A.

We have everything in the Panhandle-Plains and Pecos Valley including an abundant supply of cheap, dependable electric power. Electric power helps the cattleman, too, in grinding feed, pumping water, irrigating, filling silos and a score of other tedious chores.

LET'S TAKE STOCK NOW

Everybody wants goods.

Manufacturers want to make them for you.

Yet months after the war's end, you still find it difficult to get many of the things you want and should have.

So, isn't this the time for all of us to take stock . . . to learn a lesson . . . to find out, if we can, what will cure the troubles we are having and prevent their recurrence?

Let's look ahead and agree on a program that will insure the full production everybody agrees is the real answer to most of our problems.

Suppose we begin by taking a good look at three roadblocks to prosperity...

STRIKES

Whatever their justice or injustice, strikes paralyze production, force people to use up their savings, and result in losses that can never be made up.

PRICE CEILINGS

Full production isn't possible when industry suffers losses because of rising costs and frozen prices. Price ceilings limit production — goods just don't get made.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING

Continued huge government spending means continued high taxes. High taxes discourage production, hinder the creation of jobs, and leave you less to spend.

ISN'T THIS THE WAY?

The people, through Congress, can remove these roadblocks in the long-range interests of all...

By establishing a labor policy that will treat labor and management exactly alike, and above all be fair to the public;

By removing the shackles of price control on manufactured goods;

By cutting down on government spending now and balancing the Federal budget by the 1947 fiscal year at a level of income and outgo that taxpayers can stand.

Do you believe this program is in the public interest?

Your Representatives in Congress are the only ones that can put it into effect. Tell them how you feel about it.

Students Attend Class Meetings, Make Plans For Future Socials

Class meetings held in CHS, Friday morning, March 1, brought the following results:

In the senior class, members took part in discussing a class party which is to be held on the night of March 21. After distributing the retake pictures which several students had taken, the class discussed the buying of white coveralls which the seniors usually buy every year. A committee was appointed to decide upon suggestions for the seniors gift to the school for this year. Norma Zell Zachry, Louise Dickinson, Ruth Prichard, and Ray McDonald were named on this committee. To close their meeting the seniors discussed Kid Day, and the senior trip. Nothing was decided definitely but will be in the future.

After issuing their picture retakes the juniors planned a social which would be an outdoor picnic, Thursday afternoon, March 7th. The committee appointed to plan the refreshments, place, and time of the picnic is: Charles Wright, chairman, Gracie Boyd, Zonelle Gregg, Mary Alice Browning, Alice Prichard, Helen Spencer, Billy Abbott, Harold Prichard, Ridings Sloan, and Wilbert Long. Betty Ann Miller and Mary Ann Parker were appointed to decide on a definite date for the junior-senior banquet. Plans for another Youth Center, similar to the one CHS had last year were discussed and James Rigby, Frances Gooch, Bill Davis, and Mary Ann Parker are on the committee to make plans concerning it.

Members of the sophomore class chose their class motto and class song. The motto is "Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow, you may die." "Honey" was chosen as the song. After issuing the picture retakes the class spent the remainder of their time discussing a social. Although nothing was decided definitely the party will probably be next week.

Plans for a party on March 12 also were made in the Freshman class meeting. Picture retakes were distributed.

After issuing their picture retakes the eighth graders spent the remainder of their time playing the game of unscrambling the names of different students of the 8th grade.

Seventh grade played a game called Dr. I. Q. They also issued picture retakes and the president, Walton Byrd, appointed a committee of Ruby Lee Bonds, Betty Slagle, Bill Morton, and Joe Cotto to choose one of the pictures from the Colonial Art Exhibit for which the seventh grade is entitled for selling the most tickets.

WHY NOT?

We take pride in our school and all that it stands for: hard working students, honesty and the preparing of ourselves to become citizens who may best serve our country.

We take pride in the attitudes of the students; their eagerness to learn, their obedience and their good sportsmanship.

We take pride in the fact that we had a good football team and also a good basketball team whose members brought us honors in our district. Also, in the fact that we are organizing a band and a chorus.

Lastly, we take pride in the lives of all our graduates who have attended CHS and have gone out into the world to show that all the efforts of our citizens to promote the cause of education has not been in vain!

HELP YOUR REPRESENTATIVES

Don't forget that fellow you helped to put in office—don't forget him now, just because the elections are over. Don't forget his promises either, those promises to represent the students to the best of his ability and to get the things they want if it is possible. Don't forget these things, for he is now your representative in the government by which we, the students are now governed.

In order to represent the students and to know what they want, it is necessary that the students know what they want and that they make it known to their representatives in the student council. It is then up to the representative to live up to his promises.

When one has an idea for a new rule or believes a law to be unnecessary and seeks moderation or the repeal of the law, then it is time for him to have a talk on the subject with one of his representatives in his school government. Find out who your representatives are if you don't know them all!

Well, folks here's ole Cactus Cal from Cactus Gulch bringin' ya, some of the hottest, latest and bestest news since the gold rush of 1849.

Here—at last—is some gossip you have been waiting to hear. Dear little ole' Cupid has been at his tricks again. If you don't believe this just ask Mary Alice Browning and Wesley Prater where they were Saturday night. If Cupid wasn't there, then—who was?

Kids are really getting together these days, for instance, Donnell Ruthart and Scharlean Pyeatt double-dated with Benny Pyeatt and Anita Ruthart last Sunday afternoon. How did it turn out—for better or worse?

Juanita Avent—what does Borger have that Canyon doesn't have?

News got around to Cal, hot off the wire that Jerry Bailey has really been escorting Colleen Prichard. How did you manage, Pritch? O.K?

From what I hear Norma Jo Currie has found her new dark haired man from across the street. Is it really true? What about Buddy Price?

War' it thu Sundaes you liked in Pampa or war' it the party gals that you liked better, Benny Woods?

Is it that popcorn, boys, or is it Johnnie Ford? How 'bout that, George Schaeffer and Max McDonald?

Yes'n after all thes'n yars, Alice Prichard has at last found her self a lil' ole' beau-friend! Who could it be? Would ya' tell?

Team Outvolleys College Players

Winning four out of five games, the Canyon High Eaglettes marked up their first win of the season when they outscored two college teams, Friday, March 1, on the college hardwood. Joan Morton was high point man with a total of 39 scores for the five games. Anita Johnigan and Martha Jean Avent had 15 and 14 points respectively, to their credit. The second string lost to the college six. Louise Dickinson was high server with six points.

Playing on the first string were: Geneva McDougal, Joan Morton, Johnnie Ford, Dorothy Butler, Louise Dickinson, Martha Jean Avent, and Anita Johnigan. Second stringers are: Louise Dickinson, Sue Gillispie, Mary Sue Foster, Frances Gooch, Janey Forester, and Sue Dickinson.

Discuss your ideas with them! They are your representatives in your government, and they can represent you sensibly, only if they know what we, the students, want.

SHOW YOUR SPIRIT!

Do your feet hurt? Do you feel tired? Do you need relaxation? You do? Then come and see our Canyon High School volleyball team play Amarillo High School, March 13th. Especially you boys! My gosh, the way you boys didn't come to see the games last year made the girls on the team feel real awful. Of course the boys weren't the only ones. There were some girls, too. Maybe you think this is a little crazy. Well, maybe it is, but for all you know you might really enjoy the game. You can't say, "No I wouldn't," because you don't know. You've never come to find out. Probably, if there were a big crowd out to this game, the team would be so inspired they would play a much better game then and afterwards.

So, come on, kids, teachers, parents, everybody, attend this volleyball game that's on this way!

Mr. T. J. Cole Accepts New Position

Eaglettes Pause To Pose

ATTENTION STUDENTS!

For their first scheduled game this season, the CHS Eaglettes will play the volleyball girls from Amarillo High School, Wednesday afternoon, March 13. The game will be held in the Grade School gymnasium, at four o'clock. There will be no admission, so come on, kids, and back the girls!

Faculty Discusses Future Speakers

Officers and committee chairmen of the classroom teachers met Wednesday afternoon, February 27 after school to discuss future plans. It was decided that on Wednesday night, March 6, Dr. A. M. Meyer from West Texas State College would speak to the teachers and guests on the subject "Federal Aids to Schools."

Also, the classroom teachers decided to ask Mr. Charles M. Rogers, superintendent of Amarillo High Schools, former president of State Teachers Association to speak to the teachers sometime in April on a subject of his own choosing.

Press Students Hit Deadline of Paper

If you have passed Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore's room any time about 2:35 on an afternoon and hear moans and groans issuing forth, it's our dear editor trying to make assignments or else she's reading stories while every body else is yelling and screaming for her attention. Maybe she's trying to translate some typewritten story or has just discovered that someone has forgotten to count his inches of written material, and all this time the assistant editor is tearing her hair trying to help.

Our Chief copy-reader is using her pencil, "like 60," trying to correct all mistakes. By the time she's through with a copy you can hardly re-read it and it usually has to be re-typed.

All around, students are standing at the black boards trying to figure up a 60 point Gothic or an 18 point Metro headline. All the white hair shows how hard this task is! It's either too short or too long. After slaving for three hours one will count out right and you proceed with the other jobs of putting out our school paper.

Reporters scatter to and fro to telephone to the Grade School to get notes and stories that go to make up the news section of the "Eagle's Tale."

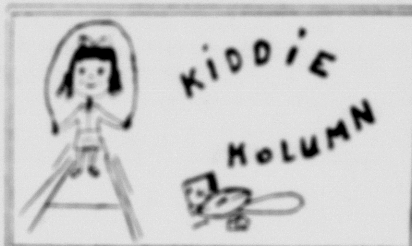

Exchange editor and her assistant are typing addresses and stamping them to send our news sheet to other schools of prominence.

The business manager goes around the room picking up paper and cleaning up the room, while everybody else just throws more paper on the floor again.

After the dummy (the sheet that places the stories for the printer) is made out and all is ready to go, in pops a reporter with a late story and it just means more work. Some weeks the "cut" (newspaper slang for picture) is late and causes a lot of extra work and worry.

About 8 or 9 o'clock on Monday nights you'll find the Press Club still busy at work trying to make the paper interesting for the students of C. H. S.

The Press must go on!

Attending the meeting were Miss Kathryn Davies, club sponsor, Alice Pierce, president of the Canyon chapter, Jo Ann Bullard, voting delegate, Martha Jean Avent, candidate for area reporter, and Geraldine Small, area corresponding secretary and candidate for area's candidate for state president.

The first few minutes of the Saturday morning session were spent in getting acquainted and then reports from officers were given.

Godshall Delineates Hirohito's Lineage

In the third of a series of speakers sponsored by the Canyon Rotary Club, Mr. Leon Godshall, introduced by Dr. J. B. Speer, spoke on Hirohito and the history of Japan, in assembly at the Canyon High School auditorium, March 4, 1946, at 2:30 o'clock with W. T. High as guests.

The assembly started with vice-president, Geraldine Small leading the group in "The Pledge of Allegiance" and then Mr. Shepherd, band leader, led the students in the "Eyes of Texas" and "Home on the Range."

Mr. Leon Godshall, from Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, is a professor from Lehigh University. He spoke of Hirohito, how he became emperor and what authority he had in the government. Mr. Godshall also lectured on the same subject in the college auditorium, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. These lectures are presented free and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The fourth and last of this series of speakers is Chester M. Tobin, who will be presented at W. T. High, next Monday, March 11.

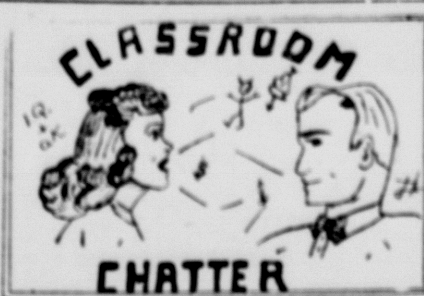

Six Boys Display Prize Livestock

Showing livestock from the Canyon Chapter of the FFA at the Fat Stock Show, which is now being held in Amarillo, March 4-7, are: Jones Hales, Richmond Hales, Dennis Burrus and Ross Forbus.

Jones is showing six Poland China hogs which are six months old. Benny Woods assists him in this work. Richmond Hales, who is going to W. T., but is still a member of this FFA Chapter is showing, also, some Poland China hogs of about the same age.

A Hereford calf is exhibited by Ross Forbus. Ross is not in school at the present, but he is trying to keep up his FFA work.

Three other boys who are not in the FFA, but who are exhibiting Hereford calves are: Albert Craig, Gibner Satterwhite and Wayne Welch.

Some students want to disagree with Webster on the conjugating of sneak. They want to know why sneak, snuck, and snuck won't do. . . . Robert Fisher wants to bet Mrs. Corder that "Yours Very Sincerely" would be a better complimentary closing by far than "Very Sincerely Yours" in typing, but Mrs. Corder doesn't believe in gambling, she says. . . . In Miss Davies Freshman Homemaking class, they were discussing bathing. An argument began over whether you should bathe in a tub or shower. One girl stood up and said, "Well it shouldn't make any difference whether you stood up or sat down as long as you get clean." . . . While in discussion in Mr. Devin's ag. class, the question came up "What do you mean by having the floor in parliamentary procedure?" Wayne Griffin, one of the students, spoke up and said "Why it's the bottom of the house." . . . Gleaned from English papers in Mrs. Gilmore's room were these:

1. I have reduced my rent.
2. I'm enclosing ten dollars with my odor.
3. I half to tell you this.
4. I shall visit several states two of which are O. and Pa. . . . Mrs. Corder just simply cannot understand why four of her bookkeeping papers were exactly the same. I'm sure it was no fault of the students. . . . Some history papers handed in had these definitions of Gag Resolutions and Kearsarge. Gag Resolutions meaning those which provided all petitions relating to abolition of slavery were to be laid on the table without discussion, was defined as resolutions to gag all southerners while Kearsarge meaning ships involved in Civil War, was defined as a bouquet of red roses.

Arizona Downs Buffs To Take Title In Border Conference

ALBUQUERQUE, March 2—An outclassed West Texas State basketball team all but upset the strong University of Arizona Wildcats with its never ending competitive spirit and hustle in the finals of the Border Conference Tournament here tonight.

The score was Arizona 44, West Texas 37.

But the classy Wildcats didn't pull away from the Texans until the last minutes of the game. With five minutes to go, the score stood at 37-37.

Then Arizona fired those seven badly needed marks and held the Buffaloes scoreless. Junior Crum, sub guard, was the hero of the final drive with the last two field goals.

Before the game, Coach Gus Miller of West Texas said Arizona had the best team and the only way his Buffs could win would be by out-fighting them. And his Canyon cagers almost did it.

Nip and Tuck
It was a torrid affair all the way until the final five minutes. The score was tied eight times—three in first half: 5-5, 7-7, 19-19; five more in second half: 22-22, 24-24, 29-29, 34-34, 37-37.

Arizona led 22 to 20 at halftime. Led by J. W. Malone, the Buffaloes made their greatest bid in the opening minutes of the final chapter. A scorching scoring spree sent the maroon and white hoopsters into a 29 to 24 advantage causing the Wildcats to call time out quickly.

Malone Outstanding

Malone left no doubt in the minds of the fans why he was named on the National Intercollegiate All-American team. The Stratford sophomore made two of the most sensational plays ever performed here in the rally. He stole the ball twice and used his lightning speed to drive in for layup shots.

Ledru Jacobs wasn't far behind Malone. The World War II veteran turned in a great game. Hank Decker, Jacobs and Malone shared West Texas State scoring honors with 10 apiece.

Lincoln Richmond, catching on fire in the second half for the Wildcats, was high point man with 12.

Arizona's veteran team is all eligible next season. West Texas loses two starters—Borden Price and Bill Stockman. The two teams were co-champions in the last Border Conference tournament held back in 1943.

New Mexico University grabbed third place by repelling Texas Tech 49 to 44.

The Lobos led all the way, but had to fight off constant threats to the end. It was 32 to 24 at the half.

Garland Head, Tech guard, smothered previously in the tourney, crashed through for 18 points to lead the scoring.

Malone Makes All-Star Team

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 3 (AP)—The University of Arizona, first postwar basketball champion of the Border Conference, claimed three of five places on a conference all-star team named today.

Arizona defeated West Texas State 44-37 in the title game of the conference tournament last night. New Mexico downed Texas Tech 49-44 for third place.

Dr. E. L. Larson, conference commissioner, announced these all-tournament selections in balloting by coaches of the top four clubs:

First team — Forwards, Link Richmond and Fred Enke, and center, Tim Ballantyne, all of Arizona; guards, Jay Malone of West Texas State and Garland Head of Texas Tech.

Second team—Forwards, Dan DeHart of New Mexico and Ledru Jacobs of West Texas State; center, Henry Decker of West Texas State; guards, Marvin Borodkin and George Genung of Arizona.

Buff's Wallop Lobos To Reach Finals

In their only other game as a seeded entry at Albuquerque, the Buffaloes crashed into the finals with a 46 to 38 win over the University of New Mexico. The half time score was 19-13.

This was not an easy game. The Lobos had some new players—tail, fast, and experienced. Only the brilliance of Hank Decker, Buffalo center, kept the locals ahead in this well-played contest. Decker got 16 points and Jacobs 10.

An embarrassed and blushing girl handed the clerk at the Western Union office a telegram containing only one word, "Yes."

Trying to be helpful, the clerk said: "Of course you know you can send nine more words for the same price."

"I know I can," answered the girl. "b-but don't you think I'd look too anxious if I said it ten times?"

Two young mothers were discussing the behavior of their children. One complained, "I never can control Billy when he becomes unruly."

"I have very little trouble with my son," the second mother explained. "Whenever he is misbehaving, I try to soothe him by brushing his hair. If that fails, I use the other side of the brush on the other end of Tommy."

"I hear you and your mother-in-law had a fight and she left your house. I thought you said you liked the old lady."

"I only said she had her points."

"Well—"

"Rationing's over now."

The first Allied troops to land on Continental Europe in World War II was the all Texas 36th Division.
